SHOWSIGHT — FROM THE EDITOR

Of course, I am one of the world's greatest fans of the limerick, that often nonsensical but very often amusing style of verse. Popularized in the mid 1850's by Edward Lear's A Book of Nonsense, the much-maligned limerick is quickly recognized by its composition of five lines of alternating rhyme, and its trademark anapestic rhythm. Not overly respected in literary circles, the limerick remains, in my book at least, a source of great pleasure. I have known literally hundreds over the years, some great, some so stupid they are hilarious, and some, well, off-color. (This collection was provided by the stage manager of the old Chicago Theatre.) Strangely enough, the clean limericks have largely left my memory bank, while the rather risqué rhymes remain. But the other day I ran across a new one, one that quickly hit the top of my list of favorite limericks.

In the most recent issue of Myrtle Hale's Los Chihuahuas, columnist Don Naugle published the following:

*There once were two cats of Kilkenny,
Each thought there was one cat too many.
So they fit and they fut,
And they spit and they sput,
'Til instead of two cats there weren't any!*

Well, it wasn't Kilkenny, it was London; there weren't cats, there were dogs, but there could have been a fight nonetheless. Duane Doll and I recently judged for the Pekin Palace Dog Association in England. The Club had graciously split the sexes, so that he would judge dogs and I bitches. Under Kennel Club rules, of the twenty-four classes there are five classes which contain members of both sexes, for which both Mr. Doll and myself judged simultaneously. Anticipating trouble, of course, and not just for us, the Kennel Club provides for a Referee; in our case the referee was Dr. Elysabeth Butt, a prominent psychiatrist, which was probably premonitory on their part. But even before the combined classes started there was dissension between the judges.

A class of 16 or so, Duane judging, and from ringside I spotted an individual I got very excited about, and an individual that I knew would catch Duane's eye immediately. Unfortunately, they were not the same dog. Duane went about his judging, and, as I predicted, the one I liked took second place and the one I knew he would like won. I was squirming with frustration as Duane came back over to the judging table. What didn't you like about the second place dog?, I hissed. Duane replied, "I liked him fine, I just liked the whole package on the other dog better." Well, I wasn't too pleased about it, but that was his class to judge, and I had no say in it. Soon, however, the tables were turned.

I had a large class and picked an individual that surprised Duane from ringside. "Why did you pick her over that glamorous fawn?" Duane asked me. I replied, Well, she's glamorous all right, but she can't touch the winner when it comes to head, body, and soundness. Duane did not look any happier about my decision than I had about his. I began to worry: What will happen when we have to agree?, I thought to myself. Are sparks going to fly? Very soon we would find out.

And of course we were both making a very large mistake, going against the only absolute truism in the sport of purebred dogs. As luck would have it, in the course of the other classes, all of the individuals in question came under the hands of the other judge. And I had to admit he was right. And he had to admit I was right. And we had proof of what we had known all along, in theory, and now in practice. You can not judge from ringside. Period.

The Pom Reader / September 1988

And speaking of limericks, several come to mind. Let's see: There was a young woman from Exeter... Good Lord, I can't publish that one! Wait a minute. Okay: A pretty young maid from Racine... Gads, not that one either. Well, give me a minute. In the meantime, the Iowa cluster left smiles on many faces. Janice Luginland judged the APC Specialty in Des Moines, and her winners were: BOB, Ch. Emcee's Solid Gold

Amigo owned by Marlene & Frank Penney; WB, BOW, the 6-9 month bitch Jestom's Miss Wonderful owned by J. & T. Stephens; WD was the Bred By dog, Jan-Le's Ragtime Music owned by Jane Lehtinen; BOS was J. & T. Stephens' Ch. Cherlyn's Ain't She Sweet owned by Cheryl Bergerson. Winning the Sweeps under Nadine Herschel was Mibabe's SM Crash owned by Babe McCombs. BOS Sweeps was the Winners Bitch. The following day was The Pomeranian Club of Greater Des Moines. Sally Baugniet took over for scheduled judge Darrell Baker who is recovering from a nasty fall which resulted in a badly broken leg, and we wish him a speedy recovery. Actually, three times recently Sally has pinch-hit for other judges, and consequently has now judged all of her new breeds. I guess that's called the luck of the Pomirish! Mrs. Baugniet's winners were: BOB, Ch. Pedron's Dragon The Conqueror owned by Pete Galindo & Ron Welch; BOS, Ch. Cherlyn's Ain't She Sweet; WD, BOW Muller's Kazar Sungold Illusion owned by Richard Lackey, and WB Beltane's Such A Spree owned by Paul & Barbara Curry. Congratulations to all, and Get Well Quick from all to Darrell.

There was a young couple named Kelly... (Definitely not THAT one!) But getting back to compromise, I am no stranger to the art. I am reminded of the time that I demonstrated uncanny ability to arbitrate, and served as Official Referee in an awful confrontation. You see, Sheila and I were in the midst of a terrible family row. Now, a little background. Sheila was from a large family, and of course they were very deprived. There were seven individuals in the household with drivers' licenses, and there were only five cars! When the kids were all home from school, Sheila's parents were reduced to traveling by limousine, as the driveway emptied out by 6:00 PM Friday and Saturday nights. Well, most of the time things worked out, until Mr. & Mrs. Mac purchased The White Car. It absolutely ruined everything.

There were three convertibles and two fancy sedans at the disposal of the Mac family, and everyone pretty much traded back and forth, compromising for their favorite car. But with the advent of The White Car everything changed. The White Car was every college student's dream of top-flight transportation, and everyone wanted it or nothing. Long about 3:00 PM on date nights the fights would begin. Someone would go to the kitchen for a snack, and you would hear the jingle of keys being surreptitiously slipped into pockets. And the arguments would start. Imagine, if you can, a Psych major, a Law student, a Sociology major, a Track Star, and a Pre-Med student standing around the dining room screaming at each other over this vehicle. Finally I had had enough.

Now, among this crowd I was considered to be very level-headed, and often my advice was heeded. I came up with the solution. At six, I decreed, we will all gather in the kitchen and vote who gets to drive what tonight. It's the only fair way. They liked that idea, and peaceful coexistence reigned for approximately three hours. At exactly six, the warring factions gathered in the kitchen, with the obvious exception of two...Sheila and me, roaring out the driveway in The White Car. That's my kind of arbitration.

'Til next month, Poms Away! — JMcG

SPECIALS ADDITION

TOP TWENTY POMERANIANS

★ JANUARY-AUGUST 1988 AKC GAZETTE ★

Presently we find a number of Poms making their impact in Specials competition. In order to keep you informed as to the progress of these hard-working members of the breed, we are pleased to offer you SPECIALS ADDITION.

SPECIALS ADDITION is your monthly rating system of the Top Twenty Pomeranians in the United States. Rules for the rating system are as follows:

Breed points (not to be confused with AKC Championship points) are allotted to individuals according to the highest placement received in any given AKC show, as reported in the American Kennel Club Show, Obedience and Field Trials Awards Book. Only this source will be used for point awards. A number of points has been allotted to the various placements, and they are as follows:

BEST IN SHOW (All Breeds).....	500
BEST IN SHOW (Specialty).....	250
BEST OF OPPOSITE SEX (Specialty).....	75
TOY GROUP FIRST.....	250
TOY GROUP SECOND.....	150

UPDATE

TOP TEN EXHIBITORS

★ JANUARY-AUGUST 1988 AKC GAZETTE ★

Welcome to UPDATE, your monthly rating list of breeders and exhibitors out there winning points in the show ring. As most all serious Pomeranian fanciers are, in one way or another, involved in campaigning their Poms for AKC Championship points, we feel that it is important to keep tabs on the Pomeranian doings in this area.

The procedures for tallying the point scale are as follows:

The source for all points is the official show awards book of the AKC Gazette. Only this publication will be used for point credits. Exhibitors are credited with all AKC Championship points won in the Gazette year, and published monthly according to appearance in the Gazette. As keeping track of each and every AKC show in the United States is an onerous task (accomplished diligently by AKC), many times the actual show dates will vary from the date of publication (i.e.- a September show may not be published until December.). The Gazette year, as a rule, runs from about November of the previous year until September of the present calendar year.

Points are allotted to THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THE DOG AT THE TIME OF COMPETITION.

Statistician: Susan Wade. Any questions concerning UPDATE may be addressed to the editor.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE LISTING OF THE TOP TEN EXHIBITORS FOR 1987, JANUARY-AUGUST 1988 AKC GAZETTE.

A CANADIAN BREEDER'S POINT OF VIEW

by Karen Bradshaw

FREE TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN CANADA AND THE U. S.

Just think of it. Free trade between kennels. Is it a dream, or could it be a reality? Are we ready to share our bloodlines between kennels and countries? Are we ready to trust in one another? Are we ready to forget the dollar gain and think of how we can work together for the breed?

Advantages:

- * Show each other's dogs to their championships in the other's country;
- * For the cost of showing a male, we could use him at stud to our own females during this time;
- * Other arrangements could be made for females;
- * Trading show dog for show dog instead of purchasing;
- * Builds relations between breeders in each country;
- * Make us more knowledgeable about what's happening in our breed in each other's country.

You may say that's all fine and dandy, but how can we trust the other kennel to:

- 1) Send a good dog
- 2) Look after our dogs properly when at the other kennel
- 3) Not use our stud dogs for outside gain (e.g. breed to females not owned by the lessee)

Well, building trust takes time and effort on both sides. Here is one way of going about breaking the ice (we use this saying in the North). [Ed. note - we use it in the South, too, i.e. "Break me some more ice for this here mint julep" —J]

Write to the kennel of your choice. Usually you've seen the pictures of their dogs in the breed magazines, etcetera. Ask them to send pictures and pedigrees of their breeding stock.

- a) If the pedigrees are consistent champions top and bottom, there is a good chance the kennel is breeding and producing quality.
- b) Write again asking for a show female, and to send pictures (front, side and rear) and her pedigree. (At this point you probably want to know "Why a female?" If she doesn't turn out to be what you ordered, there is still a chance to make up your losses. You could breed her to one of your champions. She is still the pedigree you ordered and could still produce good quality. If not, you can still sell her and the pups for pets. A male on the other hand would be a dead end.) Meanwhile, taking into consideration how the transaction is handled: If the dog arrives healthy and is what you ordered, then this kennel is a good candidate to pursue.
- c) Then it's time to get in touch with this kennel and tell them you like their dogs. Ask them if they would like a show male from you to show and use for (eg: 2 years) at no charge other than show expenses. If the kennel is interested, you could then have them send pictures of their kennel facilities. You already know the dogs at their kennel are healthy and treated well because you own one.

Always write up a show and breeding agreement between both parties. If everything is go after the above is accomplished, then send the dog at your expense.

Now, about this time some of you are saying, "Should I send one of my good show males there, for nothing, when I purchased one from them?" Here are a few good reasons:

- a) You are showing them your stock first hand;
- b) You are setting up a good rapport for future breeding arrangements;
- c) It's good advertising for your kennel, as the dog will be shown;
- d) Most importantly, making good, lasting friends with fellow breeders in each other's country.

We are all used to taking risks as we raise dogs. Why not take a risk and promote our dogs? We will all gain from it. I know I am willing...are you?

LETTERS NEWS...

Dear Joe,

Enclosed is my ad for the next possible issue of the Pom Reader. Congrats on this super magazine. I feel it is needed badly in the Pom breed, as it is the only Pom magazine sent to judges. Dog News, etc., is so widespread with so MANY breeds, the Poms tend to get lost.

I am also a Peke lover and fell in love with your lovely BIS Peke on the last page of the June Pom Reader. What a beauty, and such outstanding handling. You must be so very proud.

Thank you, and again, congratulations.

Sincerely, Barbara Nagy, Stephens City, Va

Barbara — thank you for the vote of confidence on the PR; you made my day. Also, thanks for the compliments on my dog; proud is not the word. And I owe special thanks to Sylvia Kelly for buying that congratulatory ad. What an unselfish thing to do. Best of luck and thanks for writing. JMcG

Dear Joe,

Thank you very much — The Pom Reader is beautiful. I like it so much.

I'm importing a Pomeranian from U.S.A. for ranking in Brasil and exposition in Uruguay, Paraguay, Argentina, and Chile. I dream about it every night.

Yours truly, Maria de Loundes V Calegari, Brasil

And best of luck with your new Pom! JMcG

Dear Duane and Joe,

Sable took a Group I from the puppy class in Huntsville. You spelled her name wrong, by the way, on the July cover. Her correct name is Janesa's Glen Iris Sorceress, not Jamel's. Although Eleanor says that she would have been glad to have bred Sable, Jerrie Freia really did the work. Actually, Jan & Master did, I guess.

See you soon — Cheryl A. Jackson, Birmingham, AL

Sorry about that! JMcG

Dear Joe,

Enclosed is a photo & pedigree (& check) to enter our first homegrown potential champion. I have included some info about him. I don't know how much of it is appropriate so I will entrust it to your most capable editorial abilities. The picture is of Ed & Fudgie in their first win so I will appreciate it if you would send it back.

Thanks again for the great job you are doing in keeping us informed about our favorite breed. I recommend our magazine to all new Pom owners when they adopt one of our puppies.

We look forward to the arrival of each month's issue.

Sincerely, Dot Martin, Rock Hill, SC

Thank YOU...and keep up the good work! JMcG

Hi,

I took full advantage of the free ads on "Greats of the Past". I did note a bit of sex discrimination in that it stated male. Guess we gals still have a long way to go!

As ever, Janice Luginland, Americus, Kansas

Janice — how dare you! I became an honorary member of N.O.W. in 1973, so you see where I stand on that issue. Having said that, however, I must say this: I'm sure your Pom gals are very special, but I'm not sure they have the requisite talents for inclusion in Greats of the Past in THE STUD DOG ISSUE. Continued success — JMcG

DELAWARE VALLEY POM CLUB MATCH: The DVPC will hold its next Match on Sunday, October 9th, at the American Legion Hall in Trenton, New Jersey. Judge for the Regular classes will be Delores Watts, and for the Sweepstakes we will have A MYSTERY JUDGE!!! Obedience will be judged by Wendy Trotter. Registration will be taken from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m.; judging will start promptly at 10:30 a.m. There will be no pre-entries. For more information, contact Chip Rayner: 609-587-5709.

Susann Stackhouse

OHIO VALLEY POM CLUB...In June we held our election of officers. The newly elected officers are: President: Ron Feyh; Vice-President: Darren Lane; Secretary: Lorinda Vasuta; Treasurer: Jim Shearer. Board of Directors: Larry Rookstool, Shari Stoffer Kubankin, Barbara A. Stoffer. The June meeting was also our first Annual Awards Banquet. Winners were voted upon by fellow club members and presented with a beautiful cast-metal Pom statue with a description of the award and the recipient's name. The lucky winners were: EXHIBITOR OF THE YEAR: Lorinda Vasuta; NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR: Darren Lane; BREEDER OF THE YEAR: Carol Galavich; DOG OF THE YEAR: Ch. Great Elms Prince Charming II (his co-owner, Olga Baker, is a charter member of OVPC and we are very proud of what this great little Pom has done for the breed. OVPC also presented a GOLD AWARD (this is to be awarded to the person whose contributions to our breed and especially to our club are exceptional. The GOLD AWARD FOR 1987 was OVPC Newsletter Editor, Barbara Stoffer. (believe me, I was surprised, and very pleased. It is a great feeling to know that others in your club support you and believe in you.) Each and every winner was very proud and pleased with the recognition given them by the other club members.

In July we had our annual Garage/Yard Sale and Club picnic. The sale went quite well with over $250.00 taken in. THANKS to the many members who donated items and the ones who took care of everything that day.

OVPC now has it's own library. Linda Meade is in charge of the books and videos for this project; she will be accepting any books or videos that are donated to our club and may be reached at 9157 Leavitt Road, Rt. 58, Elyria, OH 44035-4211. Tel: (216) 986-3693. Anyone that can donate books or videos, we would appreciate it. These items will be available for "borrowing", free of charge, or for viewing and reading at club meetings.

We will be holding our first POM SPECIALTY MATCH at the Holiday Inn near Akron, Ohio, on October 9, 1988. This match will be held indoors at this great location and will be one you won't want to miss. For more information please get in touch with Larry Rookstool, 2520 Eakin Road, Columbus, OH.

The OVPC now has 60 members - we have Club jackets and T-shirts with our beautiful club logo on them. They are available from Lorinda Vasuta at (216) 762-7567. Subscriptions to our Club newsletter, The Buckeye Barker, are available to non-members. For more information, contact B. Stoffer, 13810 Easton N.E., Alliance, OH 44601.

Dogs Howl and...

GROOMERS LAMENT

Customer: "My poodle is toy-sized."

Translation: 'Next to a Mastiff, he is!'

"Fido's a tad spoiled, but he's not a bad boy."

'He only bites when brushed.'

"The last groomer skinned him."

'The groomer had to peel the pelt and still leave the skin intact.'

"Georgie is a smart dog."

'The little sneak gives no warning before he bites.'

"Arno loves people, but he hates other dogs."

'In his foaming haste to get to other dogs Arno will bite the groomer.'

"Fifi has no papers, but she's a pure-bred poodle."

'We know you can make her look like one.'

"Could you squeeze me in for a bath? All Gypsey needs today is a bath."

'And five hours of brushing to get out the pine needles and chewing gum.'

"I have to have an appointment today, it's the only day I can come!"

'It is 3:30 the day before Christmas and the relatives are on the way!'

"No, Hansel is not matted, we already scissored them out for you."

'All you have to do to make him look like that Schnauzer we saw in the show last Sunday is even him up a bit!'

"Now that she's raised the pups, we want her to feel good."

'She's never been groomed in her life, but now it's time to sell the pups and it would be nice if Gigi looked good!'

"I'm not fussy, just a simple puppy clip will be fine."

'Do his head like a Poodle, his tail like a Shih Tzu, his body like a Schnauzer and put Pom Poms on his feet!'

THE GROOMER'S FINAL LAMENT:

"Must we leave Rafael? We don't leave our son at the barber."

'No, but then the barber doesn't have to take an hour to brush your son's hair, an hour to clip it, another hour to bathe, dip and dry it. The barber doesn't have to trim your son's nails, clean his ears, release his anal glands, polish his toenails or put bows on his head. Nor does the barber have to muzzle your son, or spend half an hour coaxing him from his holding cage!'

until the dog howls again...OLYMPIA

DISTRIBUTION OF THE BREED VIDEOS

Breed videos are the best possible plan to educate the judges, and the AKC should be congratulated for the enormous trouble and expense of this accomplishment. However, it is not completed until the videos are in the hands of the judges, many of whom cannot afford to buy quantities at the price of $35.00 each. The AKC should go further and give the videos to the judges, or sell to them at a nominal price. The videos are unsurpassed as a teaching tool, but ineffective because of expensive distribution. The Pug Dog Club of America is giving free copies of the Pug video requested by judges, and surely the properous AKC could do as well, as all Breed Clubs are financially pressed with dues and entry fees barely covering their specialties. The videos would improve judging to a greater extent than the expensive seminars and other activities sponsored by the AKC, but they must have wider judge distribution to accomplish this purpose.

I suggest that the AKC give free to each judge a copy of each of his licensed breeds. Every breeder, exhibitor, handler, and judge should write to the AKC requesting this move, as it would be of benefit to all of them.

As each exhibitor enters the ring, he wishes that the judge had studied that breed video, enabling him to make a better selection. This judge had probably seen the video one time, possibly among distractions, which is no substitute for extensive home study. As National Chairman of the Pomeranian production, with 39 Poms filmed, the faults and virtues were presented in such minute detail that a judge could hardly miss the lessons. Our Club cannot afford to furnish free copies, as much as they are needed. This is a desired function of the AKC.
