Another successful Summer Specialty took place in Wisconsin on August 11 and although "coming and going" - via the soon-to-be-discontinued Broadway Limited - took a big hunk out of my 4 day vacation!, the show and all events connected with it turned out to be even BETTER than anticipated!! Congratulations indeed, and many thanks to the Kenosha County Pom Club, our hosts, and Show Chairman, Nadine Hersil and her hard-working Committed. It was just GREAT!

You will find the show writeup elsewhere, and pictures of some beautiful Poms all in lovely coat for August. Wonder how they managed that? All mine were right in the midst of shedding down to their "underwear". Both the judges gave careful consideration to every entry. The two were not in complete agreement - what two judges ever agree? what two judges ever agree? But with so much quality in evidence, decisions were close.

The Kenosha Club leaped into the breach at the last possible moment and consented to host this summer's Specialty. They want to go on record as saying most emphatically that a regional club wishing to host an A.P.C. Summer Specialty should apply to the Board at least a year in advance of the expected date. The Board in turn would like to say that we hope any regional club, whether fully AKC recognized or not, desirous of playing host to one of these rotating summer Specialty shows, will contact the Corresponding Secretary and ask for a copy of our Guidelines for putting on such a show. (These are in the process of being revised and updated.) Also, write to the Chairmen of the last three Summer Specialties for words of advice on cost to the regional club and pitfalls to watch out for, etc., etc.

In my August column, I gave some true but unwelcome statistics on member participation in Club affairs, most especially concerning our Annual Specialty in New York in February each year. (Each year, our Trophy appreciation list and advertisers listed in Show Catalogue COMBINED show a total of less than 1/3 our membership contributing.) Frankly, we feel that this is a disgraceful situation. If each member would send a small trophy donation, even if nothing else, we would happily take a second page to print the list! Perhaps after the "lecture" of last time, our pledges showed a higher percentage of participation. All should be in by now, but if anyone missed the boat on the trophy pledges, an immediate mailing should still get an ad in the Catalogue. Send to Tony Short - address and phone number on page 14 of the August Review, upper left hand side.

To strike a more positive note, we are anticipating another record entry in February, and hope all our past exhibitors PLUS a raft of new ones will join us for a gala weekend. Save your money, fill all the teapots with quarters and dimes, sell a couple of Poms, hint to your family that you need cash gifts for Christmas - do ANYTHING but one way or the other, be sure to get there! Your officers and Board will play host in the Hospitality Room. If anyone wants to contribute snacks or mixers, same will be gladly accepted.

Back to the subject of MONEY. Can't seem to get away from it, this time. Members have recently received their bills for Annual Dues, showing the increase voted by more than 2/3rds of the membership, and so badly needed in our Treasury. We hope all members will stay with us. We need you all! Please send in your dues as promptly as possible, and when you get your ballot for elections, don't forget to vote.

Still on the same subject - we have found it necessary to increase subscription rates for the non-member subscribers to the Review, effective immediately as each one expires. The Board decided to hold the line on members' subscriptions for 1980, since

Texans have a grossly "un-earned" reputation of trying to do things in a BIG way -- trying at times to out-do others -- even (it is rumored) trying to impress their friends with the magnitude of their efforts!! These are obviously rumors only -- and certainly not typical of Texas behavior -- just wanted to make that perfectly clear.

WE IN HOUSTON JUST COMPLETED THE BIGGEST, MOST SPECTACULAR, MOST IMPRESSIVE, MOST EXCITING, MOST COMFORTABLE, MOST CONVENIENT, DOG SHOWS WE'VE EVER SEEN!!!! The Astrohall Series of Shows was held in Houston in early August with three all-breed clubs and one Combined Specialty Club joining efforts to provide a really fine event -- 4 shows in 4 days, all at the same huge air conditioned Astrohall. The Pomeranian Club was included with our 5th Annual Specialty Show, most successful with excellent entries, gorgeous trophy display, lots of time for the much-desired socializing that is a part of dog-showing, and big major points every day -- shared by several good dogs. Our Sweepstakes was judged by Ms. Karen Holder, former Houstonian, and long-time Pomeranian breeder and friend. (For the purpose of this column, I shall note only major winners in our own show. Space and time will not permit more extensive coverage of all the shows.) Best Puppy in Sweepstakes was TOMANOLL'S I GOT LEGGS, owned by Opal Mosher. "Leggs" was quite an attention getter all through the event and we noted he was never far from Opal's lap!! Best Opposite Sex in Sweeps was Lu Collier's precious little DUTCHESS. Then the well known Pomeranian friend and judge, Mr. Fred Bassett of Oklahoma judged the regular classes. Everyone was happy to see Fred and his judging was efficient, friendly, and seemingly popular. Winners Dog was PEDRON'S MARK OF THE DRAGON owned by Pete Galindo of El Paso -- finishing this fine dog's Championship, and planting a smile on Pete's face for the remaining days!! Winners Bitch was ROSSKEARS

PROMISED LAND, owned by Davon Shire Kennel of Florida -- very lovely and very deserving. Best of Breed went to the popular little CH. MAC'S MISTER BEAUX JANGLES, owned by B. G. McDonald of Dallas. Lots of you will remember him from his visit to New York in February -- remember "the pup" everyone was talking about? That's the guy! This beautiful little local dog (note how I manage to refer to him as "local" -- but then, Dallas is not too very far from Houston) - has been doing nice winning and now it appears some nice producing also. Double the pleasure!! Congratulations to his happy owners and also to the owner of Best Opposite Sex CH. GOLDEN WINDS LIL TRINKET and Carla Prewitt, also of Dallas.

In an effort to keep the column within reasonable length, I shall not detail individual work by members toward making our show successful. Suffice it to say to them...you worked wonders, and we thank you.

While I do not presume this to be earth-shaking, or even really notable, information, still I take the opportunity to quote excerpts from a letter I have just sent to our Club Secretary:

"Many years ago, at the time of formation of the Pomeranian Club of Greater Houston, the then members elected me President of the newly formed organization, and I have served in that capacity ever since that time...etc...etc... the Club seems reasonably healthy at this time in its history, and it is my feeling at this time that I should resign the Presidency and have the members entrust the leadership of the Club into another good member's hands. This decision is firm. I will of course continue to work with the Club and to be of assistance at any time and in whatever capacity is required, and Darrell and I will work in any ways we can to insure its continued growth and success. Respectfully Submitted,....Olga."

Officers and Directors for the coming year will be elected, as always, in October at our annual meeting -- and I am holding firm -- truly feeling it is now someone else's turn -- and it is a nice challenge and a rewarding office to hold. It's sure fun to take an infant thing and "grow it up", pulling it up by its boot strings from time to time -- but always enjoying it and taking pride in it. LOVE the Pom Clubs -- all of them.

Till next time -- keep nice -- smile a lot.

It is with sincere gratitude and appreciation that I write this column. As chairman of an event such as the APC summer specialty held in conjunction with the Cudahy KC all-breed show on August 11, one has no idea what to expect. All activities and meetings of our club held since February when we were awarded the hosting of the specialty have been devoted to one thing -- AND YOU KNOW WHAT THAT WAS!! The only complaint I have is the time factor. Hosting this specialty would have been much more enjoyable had we had an entire year to prepare instead of 6 months. Believe me, it's not hard to pull a thing like this off with cooperative club members and the proper time element. I certainly had the cooperative club members! The specialty is written up in another article so I will not go into the details other than to say that everything was just as I prayed it would be. The grounds and show site were super and even the weather cooperated. Thank you -- one and all.

The show season is in full swing here now in the Midwest and without driving too far you can go to a show every weekend. Since the forming of this club 8 - 9 years ago, the majors have been plentiful in this area, and our club members have happily shared them pretty evenly. Consequently, quite a few of our members have new champions or some dogs lacking only a few points to that magic "CHAMPION" title. Congratulations go to Jackie Liddle and "Ch. Perkins", Sally Bagniet and "Ch. Sprite", Elinor & Lucius Luccas and "Ch. Stormy." Almost there are Carol & Mark Walsh and "Carmel", Duane Gaulke and "Rocky", Hank and Marie Jatczak and "Star", Carmen Glander and "Buttercup", and Kris Collins and "Sampson". I'm sure I missed a few but at least you get a general idea of the winners. With September comes our annual election of officers and a renewed faith and devotion to club affairs and the expectation of our annual dinners with certificates for the big winners.

The biggest news concerns Sally Bagniet and Ch. Squirt. Besides racking up American & Canadian groups and specialty wins, she and Squirt now have a Canadian BIS under the renowned judge Ed Bivin. This delightful duo are certainly making their appearance felt in the tuff Toy Group competition in this area and Squirt is just coming INTO coat. Our congratulations and continued good wishes go to Sally and Squirt.

Our Annual Meeting and Specialty Show were held September 1, in conjunction with the South Shore Kennel Club in Hingham, Massachusetts. Entries were down, perhaps due to the gasoline situation, but the major held in bitches. Best of Breed and Group 4 was Robert Koeppel's Ch. Funfair's Pinto O Joe Dandy. After three years' retirement, Am. Can. Ch. Jabil's Dandy Lion, C.D., had a ball winning the Veterans Class. Winners Bitch, Best of Winners and Best of Opposite Sex was a homebred of Chris Hertz from Nova Scotia, Can. Ch. Criscendo Coy Coquette, a lovely, showy bright orange. Reserve Winners Bitch was a nine month old red, Win-D-Nol's Sweet N' Sassy, owned by members Bob and Janet Claar. BCPC members collected the placings in Dogs. Nancy Vayo's eleven month old homebred, Donayo Double Duce, was Winners Dog. An eight month old bred and owned by Jessie and Barbara Young, Jabil's Simply Sinful, was Reserve.

After the judging members gathered under the trees for the annual dinner and meeting. Claire Flesner and committee are to be commended for a lovely buffet. Award plaques were given to members whose dogs attained a breed or obedience title during the year, and new officers were installed. After four year's presidency, Jessie Young handed the office to Gladys Dykstra of Springfield, Massachusetts.

Our next B-OB Match is scheduled for October 7, and results will be in the next Pom Review.

FEBRUARY DEADLINE DECEMBER 15, 1979

we just increased the annual dues. Our Editor, Pat Lewis, is doing a great job in putting out our favorite magazine, and she is trying hard to hold the production costs to the bare minimum, BUT....I feel sure you are all familiar with INFLATION and the ever-escalating cost of EVERYTHING.

When we switched over to offset printing, we received a "bonus" of larger pictures at minimum cost, and reproduction of pictures is better. At the same time, we were forced to raise all advertising space rates to compensate for increased printing COSTS. We expected some resistance to these rate increases just at first, although by any possible standard of comparison, Review ads are very reasonable. We hope advertisers will overcome any lingering reluctance to advertise in the Review, for several very valid reasons. I won't say "IF" we want the Review to continue, because of COURSE we all want the Review to continue! Since the fledgling Canadian Pom Prints died after three years because of LACK OF SUPPORT, the Review is once again the ONLY publication devoted exclusively to Pomeranians. But the American Pomeranian Club, Inc., is not financially able to subsidize a large Review deficit. We don't expect the Review to make a profit, but we do and must expect it to break even or nearly so. In order to do that, our ads must pay about 95% of our printing costs. We rely on our income from subscriptions and sale of back issues to pay all other expenses of production, including postage (a huge item these days), shipping, mailing envelopes, office supplies, etc.

So, Reason #1 to advertise in the Review is to support the Review and help make it possible. Reason #2 is to sell top stock to people who know and appreciate top stock. If you have pets to sell, advertise them in that all-breed publication that boasts of the largest circulation of any dog magazine. Their ads are very expensive and potential buyers do not seem to want to pay more than $100 for a perfect Pom with a lifetime guarantee! Yes, a monthly gives you more exposure, but dollar for dollar, I feel you will do far better through the Review. The sale of just one Pom of show or breeding quality will more than pay for your full page ad with picture in every issue! Reason #3 is again to your direct benefit - to keep your name, your kennel name and your winning Poms in front of the only "Public" that really matters, the Pomeranian Fancy.

I'm afraid I have somewhat exceeded

A special members meeting was held immediately following the judging at the summer specialty hosted by the Kenosha Pomeranian Club. Members had the opportunity to air their views and make suggestions for the improvement of the club.

The board of directors held a meeting following the members' meeting. They discussed guidelines to employ as far as maximum amounts to allow for judges' expenses in an effort to reduce costs. Discussion was also held on ways to reduce the printing costs of the Review. The board welcomes your views and you may address any suggestions to me.

COVER STORY

TICO'S TALE by Morris Carson

A breeder can at times note that a puppy, even at a very early age, is special due to its having a distinct but inexplicable quality which sets him apart from other also-beautiful pups. Such was the case with Ch. Emcee's Solid Gold Diamond, "Tico". This rare quality has been apparent to all throughout Tico's show career and is reappearing in many of his progeny.

Tico's very first introduction to a show ring occurred at the Charlottesville-Albemarle Kennel Club sanctioned match in May 1977. At just under 5 months of age, Tico went Best in Match - even over adult dogs! A little over a month later Tico finds himself entered in Open Class (my goof!) at Skyline Kennel Club. There, at 6 months and 1 week old, Tico took his first 2 points. Three weeks later Tico attended the Mountaineer Kennel Club show - this time correctly entered as a puppy. Although he was not yet 7 months old, he went Best of Breed over Specials and wound up with a group 111 placement.

Of course, Tico has had some expert help throughout his show career. Our friend Maynard Wood, who showed Tico to his rapidly-won championship, comments that "Tico's loving but arrogant personality endears him to all, especially when he walks into the ring as if to say, 'Here I am! What are those other dogs doing here?'" Tico's qualities and Maynard's expertise paid off when, at the Charlottesville-Albemarle Kennel Club show on January 22, 1978, Tico took Best of Winners for a 4 point major, thereby adding that coveted Ch to his name.

The next month Maynard and I decided to show off our new Champion, so we headed for the Big Apple and the A P C Specialty. Again Maynard and Tico had the winning combination, as Judge Darrell Baker awarded Best of Breed to Ch. Emcee's Solid Gold Diamond over a field of 14 beautiful champions.

Since the Specialty Tico has spent most of his time "earning his keep" as a stud, except for a brief fling during this past summer when he re-entered the show ring with another expert, Nadine Hersil. In a short period of time Tico chalked up 12 BOB and 4 group placements. Nadine states that, "at first sight Tico appeared quiet and unsure of himself but that demure behavior did not last long once the show ring was at hand. Put him into an X-pen and you have a veritable tiger with brilliant orange coloring. His personality and spark were not to be extinguished when pitted against other Specials or that one-in-a-million class dog. It is a pleasure to show this bundle of vitality and one can easily see how his reputation precedes him."

Both Maynard and Nadine have commented on Tico's value as a quality producing stud dog. He is the sire of the APC Summer Specialty Reserve Winners Bitch taken from the 9-12 month puppy class. Another pup took a 5 pt. major at about 9 months of age, and many others are at varying stages in show careers; still other beautiful pups are yet too young to show. As Nadine states, "As a young dog, let us hope that Tico can continue his winning ways and produce puppies his heritage and bloodlines will be proud of."

American Pomeranian Club SPECIALTY

SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1979

By TONY SHORT

This year the Summer Specialty was held in Oak Creek, Wisconsin, August 11. The show was hosted by the Kenosha County Pomeranian Club.

We left Des Moines for the Specialty Thursday shortly before tornado warnings were broadcast for our area. The wind and rain got so bad that we had to stop after only fifty miles and spend the night. We still arrived in Oak Creek Friday afternoon in plenty of time to be among the first into the Hospitality room, the hub of any specialty. The Kenosha Pom Club went all out to provide the very best of everything. The hospitality table was filled with all sort of goodies with the main dish being Smoked Lake Trout. The table never lacked for food the entire weekend. We can't forget to thank our two bartenders Mr. Lucius Luccas and Mr. Chris Noland who were always there to provide us with a drink (soda, beer, or mixed drinks). The hospitality room was open except when we were at the show and needless to say we spent many hours there.

Sweepstakes started at 9:00 A.M. so everyone arrived at the show grounds early and were greeted by Jackie Liddle and Sally Baugniet who had their motorhomes set up just outside the ring. They served coffee and rolls which really hit the spot for those of us who had closed up the hospitality room the night before. Tom Daniels started judging Puppy Sweepstakes of 20 dogs right on time. I for one would not have wanted his job of placing these nice looking puppies and having to pick one as best. But Tom knows what he likes and did an excellent job of selecting his winners.

Robert Will judged the regular classes of 76 dogs including 15 specials! The puppies in general were well trained. Most of them were very showy. Most all the Poms were in excellent coat. The most popular color was clear bright oranges, although there were a few cream, black, and sables.

Mr. Wills' Winners were as follows:

6 to 9 Puppy Dog: Pomirish Cr Puff's Only Chance, Breeder-owner Sally Baugniet, a very showy, heavy coated cream.

9 to 12 Puppy Dog: Brown's Rock N Robin, Breeder-owner Wilma Brown, this typy, sweet faced, heavy coated puppy went all the way to Best of Winners.

Novice Dog: Gamlan's Riverboat Pirate, Breeder-owner Mary Ellen Hendrickson, a nice red sable.

Bred-by-exhibitor: Jolly Wee Tippy the Tiger, Breeder-owner Mrs. Randall Frech, a very cobby orange with lovely coat and head.

American Bred Dog: D-Nee's Dandy Don Meredith, Breeder Nadine Hersil, Owner Ross Liddle & Nadine Hersil, a very showy orange.

Open Dog Red, Orange, Cream, Sable: Jolly Wee Fancy Dan of Peppi, Breeder-owner Mrs. Randall Frech. This typy orange won over a tough class of 10 dogs and went on to Reserve Winners Dog.

6 to 9 Puppy Bitch: Pomirish Imag Gin Li'l Me, Breeder-owner Sally Baugniet, a very showy orange.

9 to 12 Puppy Bitch: Emcee's Solid Tange Gold, Breeder Lennis Raines, Owner Morris & Betty Carson, this lovely orange is definitely a winner and went on this day to Reserve Winners Bitch.

Bred-by-Exhibitor Bitch: Gamlan's Summer Caprice, Breeder-owner Mary Ellen Hendrickson, a nice orange in good coat.

American Bred Bitch: Little Muffin's Image, Breeder Jean Janning, Owner Patty Withhart, a very nice heavy coated orange.

Open Bitch, Red, Orange, Cream, Sable: Scotia Braum Chintilly Lace, Breeder-owner Edna Girardot. Edna our grand little old lady of Poms who seems to show up at every Specialty, showed this beautiful sized orange all the way to Winners Bitch.

Veteran Dog: Ch. D-Nee's Call Me Wart, Breeder-owner Nadine Hersil, had very good type with a good tail set.

Stud dog class was won by Nadine Hersil's Ch. D-Nee's Darin' Diandan, her beautiful Best in Show Pom.

Brood Bitch class was won by Lucius and Elinor Luccas' Luell's Finally a Timstopper, a nice brood with two beautiful puppies.

BEST OF BREED!!

Ch. Randy's Ga. Hot Shot of Jolly Wee, Breeder-owner Mrs. Randall Frech, an extremely cobby little orange that demanded to be number one. Hot Shot went on to win a well deserved Group 3.

Following judging we were all served lunch. Boy was it good! I will not go into the menu, but if anyone failed to get enough to eat it was their own fault.

The Banquet was a fitting end to a perfect day. The Prime Rib Dinner was done to perfection. A wine glass with the inscription "SUMMER SPECIALTY 1979" and a hand painted Pom was given to each dinner guest. These glasses were painted by Kris Collins.

One thing I know for sure, we cannot give enough thanks to the Kenosha County Pomeranian Club members for the delightful Specialty weekend we had in Wisconsin...

SWEEPSTAKES CRITIQUE

THOMAS E. DANIELS

To be asked to judge Sweepstakes at a Summer Specialty is indeed an honor and a challenge. I want to express my thanks to the Members of both the Kenosha County Pomeranian Club and the American Pomeranian Club for inviting me.

When I received the Judging Schedule, I was pleased to see an entry of 20 for Sweeps, this being the largest collection of Puppies I had seen since New York. Leaving New England in a Thunderstorm, it was indeed a pleasure to land in Milwaukee with blue skies and sunshine.

The day of the show was spectacular both weather-wise and Dog quality. The show site was excellent and the Trophy table was outstanding. Couple all of this with a friendliness that was all around and you knew that you were going to have a great day.

My Best in Sweeps was D-Nee's D'Lishos Dambrosia, owned by Sharon Mariner and Jacqueline Liddle and was from the 6-9 Class. An excellent show lady, cobby, typey and with real substance.

My Best Opposite was Brown's Rock N Robin, owned by Wilma J. Brown. He was from the 9-12 Class and was medium sized, well coated, short in back and here again an excellent show dog with style.

It goes without saying that making the final decision was not easy as all of the entries were of high quality and a credit to the Breed. I wish all of them well in their show careers.

My thanks also to the Stewards and everyone else for making my judging run so smoothly.

That evening we had a very nice dinner, which I know was enjoyed by all the members and guests, as was the Hospitality Room, which was well stocked with Food and Drink, and ran so smoothly.

Special thanks should go to all the Members of the Kenosha County Pomeranian Club and especially Nadine Hersil, who put this all together, without a hitch. Everything was perfect from the time you stepped off the plane until you were on your way back home.

Again, my thanks to all for allowing me the pleasure and opportunity to judge the Sweeps and also for giving me the opportunity to meet so many people that I only knew by a name and address.

KENNEL VISIT WITH JEAN SCHROLL

By Bea George

I would like you to come with me for a little visit a few miles out of Oregon City, Oregon to Jay Jay's Kennels at 12950 S. New Era Rd., the home of "Ch. Holders a Li'l Red Flash" known to all of us who treasure his friendship as "Texas". Living with him are his proud owners, Jean and Jimmie Schroll, three Champion sons, "Free", "Robin" and "Irish" and only a few others at the moment. As Jean sees "Texas" he is the most perfect Pom she has ever seen and from his show record many other people had this same idea. I would like to tell you in more detail about this fabulous dog and then we shall get back to the kennel. Jean first started in Poms in 1964. After four years of looking for a dog she felt a good representative of our breed she settled on a cream male bred by Mildred Robinson Graff. Unfortunately he came to her at a bad time due to her first session of kennel cough. Most of us who show dogs, I'm sure find this a very hard thing to escape entirely. Because of this she wasn't able to get him out enough, so he wasn't the showman that he could have been. He did finish and made a number of group placements, plus finishing easily in Canada. A few years went by, during which time she did some limited breeding and all the while looking for another really good show quality Pom. Jean is a professional handler so has had the opportunity to study the breed extensively. She made a trip to Texas in the late 1960's and visited most of the Pom people, leaving word with every one that she was looking for a really good male Pom. No one had one to offer at that time but not too much later she received a letter from Barbara Holder McLaughlin asking if she still was looking for a show male. She said she sure was and Barbara said she had this little 2 month old boy that looked very promising. Jean and family were in the process of moving into the home where she now lives with "Texas" so she asked Barbara to hold him till he was four months old, at which time he was shipped. When she received him at that age, he of course was going through as I call it, the awkward teens, horribles, uglies, or however one might see this time when they go through their first coat change. I'm sure it is the only really "unglamorous" time in a Pom's life and by no means do they all go through it, but "Texas" did. The soundness was there 100% so all they had to do was wait awhile for coat. It came of course to perfection being a clear deep Orange. He has a short level back, a high tail set, tiny little ears and sound on all four legs. He was a showman in every sense of the word and isn't able to put his feet down wrong. He loved to show and never let Jean down. A ten months "Texas" was shown and won RWD for his first two shows. Next they went to San Francisco for the Northwestern California Pomeranian Club Specialty summer show. It was a two show weekend. At Richmond Dog Fanciers "Texas" went BOW, for 4 points, then on to the specialty where he again went BOW for 5 more points. This at 11 months of age. The next weekend home again for BOB and group 3 and another 3 points. The following weekend another show and another great big 5 points and a group 2. At three days past one year "Texas" was finished. I might say here that "Texas" personality is equally as great as his showmanship. Sweet, loving and most outgoing. If you have your old Pom Reviews he may be seen on the cover of the April 1971 issue. A beautiful dog for sure. I did not know Jean at this time so did not know "Texas" personally in his young life but I've sure enjoyed him these past few years and am privileged to own sons and daughters of his. I am not sure exactly what his record was as he was being campaigned but he has 95 group placements and 4 Best in Shows, which is a most impressive record. I shall never forget my first visit to Jean's home and my unbelief upon entering her living room and observing one entire end wall of a large living room from table level to ceiling, plus a huge fireplace mantle on the other wall, completely covered with trophies, rosettes, ribbons and the various silver, crystal, etc. All belonging to "Texas". Being rather new as far as showing was concerned it was almost beyond comprehension that one dog could have earned all that recognition. I'm sure there aren't too many with such a record.

Jean with an armful of love.

Texas is now ten years old, going strong and to date has 12 Champion children and two more pointed. Jean has been very selective who she has used him with consequently he has not been used extensively so this is a very impressive record. There have been several shows that I've attended that most all the winners had "Texas" breeding in the background. He is everything one could ever hope for in a Pom and I'm sure can never be replaced in Jean's heart. She keeps looking and hoping for one to come along that would be somewhere near as good but so far none. I really think he is a one and only and we will have to settle for a bit less. The 3 Champion sons she has are very lovely dogs as well.

We made a trip to England to Cruft Show in 1978 and had hoped to maybe find a couple of nice dogs there to bring a little new blood in but no success. Their dogs were quite small and Jean believes a Pom should be a sound five pound dog. These little dogs are "Cute" but rarely make good broods or studs. Just too much risk in my opinion.

Now that I have told you about "Texas", the hub of the wheel around which most of the Jay Jay's Kennel revolved, I'll tell you a little more about this rather unorthodox kennel. The reason I put it this way is because of the fact that they have a modern kennel in all respects a hundred feet from their house but this is too far from where Jean can keep her eye on them. Her dogs are housed with them and consider themselves "people". Fortunately she has a large utility porch, in which they built a wall of pens which are used at night. From this service porch the door opens into a large fenced, grassy backyard where they can exercise to their heart's content. The living room is large and has several baby play pens in it which are used for new mothers and puppies. Because of this "Togetherness" her dogs have very nice personalities and rarely do you see one that isn't quite outgoing. I don't think Jean ever had more than five or six bitches at any time but they were good dogs and produced many fine puppies. Jean spent eleven years working for a Vet so has a lot of knowledge about the problems to watch for and what to do about it. This is both good and bad in as much as, at times, I think she is overly cautious. During these years of breeding, their daughter Shirley lived with them and was equally as Chapped up in the dogs. This made it possible for Jean to make her show circuits knowing that all would be well. Shirley was very competent whelping the mothers, etc., so Jean had no worries. But as daughters have a habit of doing, her "Prince Charming" arrived on the scene and mother lost her kennel helper. She tried for a while to hire help, but as you know this is just about impossible. You perhaps can find someone to clean etc. but to personally care for the dogs as you like - no way. Jimmie runs the boarding kennel which they have and that keeps him quite busy.

During that period my husband Wayne and I had become acquainted with the Schrolls thru our dogs and Jean felt we were breeders that she would feel secure in placing her bitches with. Having to be away as much as she is, it would have been impossible to carry on a breeding program, so we made an agreement satisfactory to both of us and we took over the bitches and have carried on with her breeding program these past three years. We raise about twenty puppies a year I would say and feel we can be quite proud of the quality we are offering our customers. Jean hopes one day to be in the position to do some breeding once more so she wants to keep her line going.

Ch. Flash contemplates his wall of ribbons and trophies.

The Schrolls' latch string is always out and nothing do they enjoy more than folks dropping by. Their place is so beautiful you feel you are in a park. They have about two acres and they utilize every bit of it. They raise a fabulous garden every year with vegetables to share with neighbors and friends. Jean's particular liking is trees and she really has some beauties of many species. They maintain a lawn almost like a golf course so it all adds up to beautiful grounds. They may well be very proud of all they have. So really at the present time I think she has only about a dozen dogs at home, four of which are Champions. They are very special to her and do have more less the run of the house except for the living room. When it comes bedtime, I'm not sure how many rate a space on Jean's bed, but I know "Texas" rates the number one spot and I'm sure there are others. If they live a dog's life so to speak, I'd be glad to join them any day.

Framed???

Another little thing I'd like to add is a word or two about Jean's handling of the dogs. When on circuits, I've made a number of trips with her and the number one thing at all times is the care of those dogs that have been entrusted to her. They are never left alone very long at a time in the motor home and when in the exercise pens you never hardly turn your back on them. Always the care and comfort of the dogs comes first and from there you consider your own needs. I find this a very commendable attribute as this is not always the way it is.

She is also a very dedicated person regarding the standard of our breed. She tries to breed for this and becomes quite upset at times when animals are put up that are so far from the standard. I know of a number of letters she has written concerning this situation so she doesn't sit idly by allowing our breed to go downhill. We find it hard to get majors here in the Northwest which proves our breed has lost some of its popularity for the moment. We must work to correct this as all we proud owners of Poms know they are the greatest little dogs in existence. I did say owners, which I shall correct. My saying being, "I have never really owned a Pom, they all own me."

As a last thing I would like to say, thank you Jean and Jimmie Schroll for a lovely friendship and all the help you have given us along the way in our breeding and showing of our beautiful breed --

The Pomeranian.

ETHICS IN MAKING A CHAMPION

by Sally Baugniat

Congratulations, you have a new Champion! If you have played the game the best you could with good ethics and goodwill toward your fellow exhibitor, the congratulations are sincere and memorable. This article is meant to help the new exhibitor and remind the old. We all make mistakes, but if we learn from those mistakes and take steps to prevent them from happening again we surely can be forgiven. Believe me, I have made some doozies!

As a review for the beginner, here are some basic American Kennel Club rules that pertain to the requirement for making a Champion of Record.

A.K.C. requires fifteen points, including two majors, each earned under two different judges to have your dog become a Champion of Record. A major is three to five points earned in a show. The number of points is calculated according to the number of dogs or bitches that are shown in your breed at the particular show.

If your dog goes Best of Winners, it has the highest number of points available in that show for your breed. For example: That day there are four points in dogs, two points in bitches. Winner's bitch goes Best of Winners and is therefore judged to be better than Winner's dog and earns the same number of points as Winner's dog.

A.K.C. has no provision for extra points when a class dog or bitch goes Best of Breed or Best Opposite Sex over a Specials dog or bitch. Nor are there extra points for group placement, except for first in Group where you are given the highest number of points available to any breed in that group for that show. (You should be so lucky.) A class dog going Best in Show is awarded the most number of points available to any breed in that show. (Don't hold your breath for that one.)

Keep in mind that you need fifteen points including two majors under two different judges. Any more points than that does not make your dog more of a Champion! Occasionally you may have a dog that needs one or two points and earns three to five points in the last show. The dog then finishes with more than fifteen points, but this is ethical.

I feel that it would be unethical for a handler, be it owner or professional, to put more than twenty points on the dog. It may cause hard feelings, because you are depriving another dog of points. This day and age with the unavailability and expense of gasoline, plus higher entry and handling fees, it makes it even more important that a dog not compile unneeded points.

When a dog needs both majors and has nine points, or needs one major and has twelve points it would be considered poor ethics to show that dog in a one or two point show unless an exhibitor asks you to show it to hold the points.

After you have finished your dog you no longer show it in anything except the Specials class. Many times the dog was already entered in the classes in two - three weekends of advance shows. Unless you are asked by other exhibitors to show your dog - don't. Wait to enter it in Specials class or if the other entries haven't closed, change the entries to Specials class, and show it from the acceptable class for your finished dog. If your dog has just finished and you feel he is Group or BIS material, it surely isn't going to hurt him, or you, to wait until he can be entered and shown from the Specials class.

Occasionally an exhibitor miscounts the number of dogs in competition or forgets about one that was disqualified, or for some reason thought there were more points than there were. This is why ethically you can allow a couple of points beyond fifteen. This is also why it is a good idea to check the duplicate of the judge's book available at the Superintendent's table. You should keep good records of your dog's wins. Write the name of your dog, the name and date of the show the win and number of points earned at that show. These should be double-checked against the published wins for each show in the A.K.C. official publication, the A.K.C. Gazette.

If you hire a professional to show your dog, make sure it is a dog worthy of being shown. Ask if they are showing another dog or bitch of that breed. It might make a difference and you might want to wait. Tell them that you don't want your dog shown out of coat or ungroomed. Let them know that fifteen

WHAT IS A POMERANIAN ???

What is a Pomeranian? It's a small bundle of love. A tiny ball of fur with big almond eyes that watch you lovingly, every minute. A little miniature pet that walks with the grace of an angel. Legs straight out, then down. Head held up high. What a thing of beauty it is.

What is a Pomeranian? Most of the time a sweet little angel. But once in a while the old devil takes over. But then, when the angel in your Pom comes back, and she looks at you with those big innocent eyes, you forget and forgive. Just like she knows you will.

What is a Pomeranian? A little doll face animal whose most important goal in life is only to please you in every way, which follows you around, so as not to miss any great adventurous thing you might decide to do. A sweet little thing that will always love you, no matter what.

What is a Pomeranian? Just the most beautiful and loveable animal in the whole wonderful world. If you don't believe me just ask anyone who has ever had one

OBEDIENCE NEWS

EMMA HEYDE
170 Chicago Way
San Francisco, CA 94112

With great pleasure we report another Pomeranian C. D. degree. This is SILVAKRESS VIVA owned by Claudia J. Frank of Wisconsin Rapids, WI. The real joy is that this little one already has her tracking degree, and is now a C.D., T.D. She is doing so beautifully, we wonder if she will be the very first Pom U.D.T. for us to announce! She must be very good - read on from Claudia's note: "My little Viva has recently earned her Companion Dog degree. In fact, she earned five C.D. legs with two class placings in the stiff competition in Minnesota and Wisconsin. I was extremely pleased with her consistency qualifying all 17 times in Novice competition with eight placings in 11 times in class competition and three high in matches. Her score for 11 of the 17 times were 195 through 199. Besides her vivacious performances, she thoroughly enjoys training and showing, and we are moving along in Open very quickly. Viva's dam, Gala (ROCKY'S FLUFF'N PUFF,C.D.X) is still working along in Utility and we are almost ready to get our feet wet in the Utility match ring. I really like the look of the new Pom Review format and am looking forward to all the future issues." Sincere congratulations, and keep up the good work.

A charming letter was received from Kay Page of Cincinnati, Ohio, which starts out with: "I just received my first copy of Pomeranian Review. Boy, what I have been missing all these years!" Kay has two Poms, PAGE'S LADY DARLING,C.D. and SHEBA,C.D.X. Sheba is now training for Utility. She was shown five times in Novice and was No. 10 in the obedience Delaney System. Kay hopes to have her ready for Utility in the fall shows, and we certainly wish her lots of good luck and fun with those Poms. (She sent me a picture, and they really are both adorable.)

The Puget Sound Pomeranian Club, Inc. of Seattle, Washington, has a truly talented member in obedience trainer Linda Blouin. Virginia Niehaus, editor of that Club's newsletter, was kind enough to send me a copy which contained an excellent article by Linda, and permission to use any part of it. I wish we could include the whole article right here and now, but will try to write up her method of starting a dog out using a long 30 foot line, just as soon as possible. (If you must have this method immediately, please contact me.) The article begins: "You first need the proper collar and lead. I have found that locating the proper collar for obedience training a Pomeranian is no easy matter. A regular chain collar will destroy a Pom's coat. A light weight nylon slip collar is very easy on the dog's coat, but, in my opinion, is useless for training as it will not loosen properly after you have made a correction. Try to locate a tight linked jewelry chain collar. These give proper release after corrections and are supposedly easy on the coat. It will probably help to spray your dog's ruff with an oil-based coat dressing before putting the collar on. The leash is a much easier matter. You want to use the lightest weight snap possible on a thin lightweight strap. A good lead can be made at home using a fishing swivel for a snap and any good lightweight line or cord. Incidentally, your lead should be six feet long."

My own Poms have recently been performing what I believe is a really worthwhile service - that is by coming with me to visit at a convalescent home. We go from one person to another (most are in wheelchairs), and it is heartwarming to see how they are received. Almost everyone has had a dog at one time or another, and of course most of these people never get to see one any more, let alone touch one - and do they ever love to hold the Poms. Maybe you can get your obedience club to put on a little demonstration, as I did - it can mean so much to a lonely person.

FEBRUARY REVIEW SALUTES THE OBEDIENCE POMERANIANS

February will see us saluting that hard working group - the Obedience Poms and their people. We will have special obedience articles and - we hope - some ads from these, the smartest of canines - our

Trillis Duncan and Karen S. Holder
sadly say goodbye to

CH. BONNER'S STARCREST TRILLETTE

August 21, 1975 to July 27, 1979

Trill:

I called her "Misty" after a famous grandmother. But as her name denotes, she was a "Star" that flickered briefly in our lives. She came to us, as a 3 month old bundle of fluff, and we had her 3 years all of which we loved her dearly. We sent her to Karen to further her career. She left us 3 daughters by Ch. Mercer's Youngduke of Tim Sue. We will always love and miss her.

Karen:

I love all my Poms dearly but never has one touched my heart the way Trillette did. Trill Duncan decided to share her with us and sent her to us in November 1978. Never has more love danced into my life than the day I got Trillette. Trillette came to me with a four point major and I entered her in seven shows. She won four of those. I want to thank my dear friend, Donna Megenhardt, for showing her at the Specialty for me and for putting a four point major on her. Her record of wins is 4-4-2-1-4. I miss her desperately. She was a deeply loved pet. Our home will never be the same again.

Trillette's children:

Ch. Windy Acres Lil' Trinket, Female
Windy Acres Peaches 'N Cream, Female
Windy Acres Bit O' Duke, Female
Bonner's Tribute to Trillette, Male
Bonner's Memory of Trillette, Female

We wish to thank Dorothy Bonner for breeding Trillette and to acknowledge Trillette's two litter sisters - - Ch. Bonner's Starcrest Minette and Ch. Bonner's Starcrest Coquette.

I am sure a full report of the summer specialty held at Cudahy, Wisconsin, will be included in this issue, so I will touch on it only briefly. We did have a grand time and perfect outdoor show weather. The picnic that was hosted by the Kenosha Pomeranian Club was fabulous!

We Rebels had some good wins with Randy Frech's Ch. Hot Shot leading the way with Best of Breed both days. Edna Girardot had lovely double barrelled wins, too, with Scotia Braum Chantilly Lace taking Winner's Bitch at both the specialty and the next day as well. Mary Nell Hansard brought home a big major on Dixieland's Little Bit Stormy, with Winner's Dog at the Racine show, after second in a big open class at the specialty. I believe he needs 1 major to finish and a very deserving little guy he is. Randy, Mary Nell, and I had to be rescued when we managed to get ourselves locked in Randy's motor home. Tony Short was our knight in shining armor who repaired the lock.

Once more our "Charlie" chose the motor home "en route" to have puppies. She is the same one who did this in Florida back in Jan. These were born in Kentucky. Poor Charlie will get a year's rest now as she has both raised her own and then for the second time is playing foster mother to a second litter. She is worth her weight in gold.

Randy just finished another Peppi son, Jolly Wee Fancy Dan of Peppi. This dog was open class first at the specialty and reserve at Racine.

Entries have been way down at area shows, with shows that have held majors last year dropping down to single points. One upcoming pair of shows has two specials as the total Pom entry.

I do think clubs should be encouraged to hold the line on entry fees wherever possible, and applaud the clubs who cut fees for puppy entries or the less popular classes, as this does encourage more entries and in the long run makes more money for the clubs.

Happy holidays!

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS AND VIEWS

ERIN HUNDLEY
19101 - 67th Street S.E.
Snohomish, WA 98290

One of the most familiar faces in the Northwest show rings is that of Jean Schroll, who is being visited for this issue of the Review. We are proud to know her. I have enjoyed Jean's comments and advice ever since the day many years ago when she practically yanked me back into the ring to compete for reserve.

I recently went down to visit Sally and Vance McGilbry. They still keep going in spite of illnesses which confine them to home most of the time. Vance is recuperating from an attack of Inflammatory Arthritis, which had him hospitalized almost two weeks this Summer. Sally still smiles and continues to plan and breed and show her dear friends, the Poms. Vance aids and abets her, even though his first love will always be his German Shorthairs. (They still are winning for him, too.)

We talked of many things, including the size of Poms today and of the 1940's when Sally owned Ch. Dromore Bombardier and his son Ch. Golden Glow Dandy. Many people comment about the large size of Poms of the old days. Sally pointed out that Dandy weighed 3½ lbs., Bombardier 4 lbs. Ch. Toppers Little Corkie was a solid 5 lbs. Corkie's son, Ch. Riders Sparkling Gold Nugget, the greatest winning Pom of all time, weighed in at 3½ lbs. She reminisced about the day she judged him and gave him winners dog and offered to buy him. The next day he won the breed and first in Toy Group, from the puppy class. Porter Washington bought him and showed him to that incredible record which has never been equalled.

The Columbia Pomeranian Club Match was held at Kennelworth Park in Portland, Oregon, Sat., July 14, 1979. A beautiful sunny day. Tall trees shaded the exhibition area. Rita LaVerne judged each and every Pom carefully and thoroughly. I don't know the names of the winning dogs, but I do know the owners. Muriel Gunther showed a nice male to Best Adult in Match. Mary Rosenbaum's puppy bitch was Best. Jr. Puppy and Best Puppy. A nine month old Male puppy who was bred by Mary Rosenbaum, and co-owned by my son Chuck Hundley and I, was Best Senior Puppy. A Pot Luck Lunch followed the match. We were all ready for that.

The news that Joy LeCompte's husband passed away the day before, saddened everyone. I had never met him but I understand that Lou was a real Pom lover, the kind that stays at home and love his little babies, building little beds and other nice things to make caring for the dogs easier. He would hold them and love them. He also gave Joy moral support. For those of you who have never met Joy, she is best known for her work in obedience, and for breeding Am. & Can. Ch. Goldpas and for breeding Am. & Can. Ch. Goldpaz Jonnie Midnight, a sound, clear black. Joy also has judged many matches, including two for the Puget Sound Pomeranian Club. We send her our love and prayers.

Phil and I enjoyed our trip, particularly because "Rainey" was best Sr. Puppy, but also because we were trying out our new camper which was purchased especially for dog show trips. (Hope we can afford the Gas!)

points is enough to finish your dog. The professional sends you your ribbons, marked pages from each show in which your dog was entered - and - the bill. Be sure you hire an ethical professional. Belonging to a Professional organization does not necessarily mean every member is ethical. Some handlers, be it owner or professional, have different standards of ethics.

Each owner - handler and professional - handler should take the responsibility of setting a good example for the novice exhibitor and keeping this sport - a clean one.

Good ethics and common sense makes dog showing more enjoyable.

Proudly present a new Champion

To Josephine

The joy of Poms is that we learn
There is something new at every turn.
Their breeding and care are a special trust
Great expectations are a must.
Sadness and joy have come our way
Patience and endurance we need each day.
As weeks turn to months and then to years
The Poms fill them up with smiles and tears.
It's all worth while when out of the dream
Comes our first homebred Champion - our Josephine!

FRED BASSETT

1980 Annual Specialty, February 10, 1980, Loews-Summit Hotel - New York City

New York specialty time is fast approaching - time to start making plans to attend. We expect a fabulous show this year, and hope to see all of you there!

Judges: Mrs. Michele Leathers Billings, Regular and non regular classes
Miss Nadine Hersil, Sweepstakes classes

We will have a hospitality suite this year, hosted by your board of directors. We will all be bringing snacks, and plenty to drink - and any contributions you may wish to bring along will be greatly appreciated. We will open the suite following the board meeting on Saturday afternoon and look forward to renewing many old acquaintances, and meeting lots of new Pom people.

In this issue you will find a banquet reservation form and a hotel room reservation form. I'm sure we can count on Sam Zaneoff to line up a delicious dinner for us all - we hope you will plan on attending. Get your reservations to Sam early, before you forget or misplace the form.

The club has blocked fifty hotel rooms this year, so reservations should not be a problem as long as you get them made in plenty of time. The club block will be held until January 19th. After that, rooms will be subject to general availability -- so don't procrastinate! Room rates are $50.00 single or double occupancy, plus taxes, and the hotel is going to try to keep us all together - preferably on the second floor.

Jessie and Barbara Young have some beautiful trophies lined up for us. Most trophies will be crystal, with an etched Pom figure. The lucky owners of Winners Dog and Winners Bitch will be getting original oil paintings done by Julie Brumback.

By the time you read this, advertising will probably be closed for the catalog. Closing date is November 15th. Contact Tony Short if you need more information.

Premium lists will be out in mid December. We are cutting down on the number of premiums lists we mail this year in an attempt to cut costs. They will be mailed to all members, Pom Review subscribers in the northeast area of the country only, and anyone else who has entered the specialty in the last three years. If you do not received a premium list by January 1st, and want one - contact the show secretary. Better yet - save the club the postage expense and send your entry in on an entry form from any other premium list you have available. Just change the name of the show and date, and mail your entries to:

Fred C. Bassett, Show Secretary
2713 South 111th East Avenue
Tulsa, Oklahoma 74129

Open classes are divided as follows for dogs and bitches:

Black, Brown and Blue
Red, Orange, Cream and Sable
Any other allowed color

Puppy classes and sweepstakes classes are divided as follows for dogs and bitches:

6 months and under 9 months
9 months and under 12 months

Entry fees are:

$10.25 for first entry of a dog in regular classes

$10.00 for each additional entry of the same dog

$5.00 for sweepstakes - entry in regular classes required.

Checks should be made payable to the American Pomeranian Club, Inc. Entries close 12:00 noon, Wednesday, January 23, 1980.

See you all in New York!

There are many cliches which are bandied about among dog fanciers. Some are sadly overworked, some have lost their original meaning, and some may not be true, the truth or helpfulness of a cliché depends on the context in which it is used. Here are some of my favorite cliches, and anecdotes to illustrate them.

"Never give up; keep on trying;" and variations thereof. In this day of instant coffee, instant soup, instant everything, we tend to want instant results with our dogs, too. Often, novices see Pomeranians being finished from the puppy class, and think that this should always be the case. But frequently we must wait for a dog to mature. Many dogs don't coat up until they're two years old. I finished a bitch last spring who was a month short of her fourth birthday, and I know of one Pom who attained his championship when he was about seven!

Many an owner can tell funny tales of long exasperating hours spent trying to get a male to breed for the first time. With one of mine, we began working on the 11th day of the bitch's season. We finally succeeded on the fifteenth day. (Amazingly, she conceived.) While there are a lot of little tricks to training a stud, (starting when he is young is vital) - the main thing is to sit on the floor and keep after him.

"Expect the unexpected." Just when you think you've seen it all, something new happens. Or when you think you've got the routine or pattern figured out, along comes something to blow your mind. I can safely say that everyone of my big wins have come on days I expected a second or third, and - moan - vice versa.

I have a bitch who had refused her first litter after a C-section. (Her second litter died immediately.) When she had to be sectioned for her third litter, I expected her to refuse the babies again. She did, but not as vehemently as the first time. She didn't seem to be afraid of them; she just didn't want to fool with them. After the third day, I gave up on her. Somewhere I'd gotten the idea that if they didn't accept them by the third day, they weren't going to. So I was astonished when, on the sixth day, she took them over completely! Although her milk production was poor by then, and I had to continue to supplement, she was a very devoted mother. (This story would also fit "Never give up..")

Morris Carson had a litter of two, born by Caesarian section, that looked peculiar when they arrived. The veterinarian said they were dehydrated! Too weak to nurse, they were hand fed sugar water. The vet urged the breeder to feed them until they looked like they might pop, and to do it frequently. (An enema would also have gotten fluids into their systems rapidly.) After 48 hours, they had gained enough energy to be turned over to their dam.

"Where there's a will there's a way." I had one litter of puppies that seemed to be unable to have bowel movements on their own in spite of their mom's licking and my massaging. The only solution was daily enemas. But what do you use on a 4 ounce puppy? I found an old stomach feeding tube attached to a 20 cc. syringe was ideal. It is soft, tiny, and easy to insert. I think it is safer than a hard medicine dropper or syringe. I used only warm water, beginning with 3 cc.s and gradually increasing to 10 cc.s by the time they were about four weeks old. Once they were moving around and exercising, the problem disappeared.

Mrs. Ruth Doctor of Fort Wayne, Ind. sent the following: I had a mother that did not have milk for almost a week. The three pups held their own but didn't gain nor grow. The vet had me change to a moist food -- no difference in milk supply. Then he told me to take about 15 miniature marshmallows and met them in 1 cup of milk, let it cool and gave it to her to drink. I did this in all her milk for 2 weeks. Her milk came in and all three puppies really grew." On thinking about this, it is probably the protein-rich milk which stimulates the mammary glands and the marshmallows get the bitch to drink it. Perhaps melted ice cream would work equally well?

The new Review is excellent. Pictures, paper, everything. Hope you stay as Editor for many years.

Happy to see you tell "Name not Withheld" (August Review, Yips & Yaps) the Review will continue to print complaints. Several that have appeared in the Review have been taken care of because of the right to be aired in the Review. (And only because of this right.)

I know two breeders that have had a litter of seven. I wonder if they feel the complaint was aimed at them. Of course, they weren't written up in the Review.

Keep up the good work,
Ann Kiser

It's obvious after reading letters from the respected and esteemed people in our Pom world that they feel very strongly about over-trimming and the tendency of judges (who do not come out of our breed) to fault an abundant coat.

People like Dorothy Bonner, Dr. Fields, Darrell Baker and Randy Frech have made it very clear!

Having bred Poms for some years then handling them for many more, I feel the Parent Club must take some action.

I read with interest in Sue Goddards Secretary's report that a directive will again be sent out to the judges.

Much as I appreciate the club's effort to do something about this, I am doubtful it will solve the problem.

Judges will probably glance at it, then forget it. I really believe it is going to have to be made plainer within the standard! One judge suggested the reference to trimming be capitalized!

Although as a handler I hope it will be resolved one way or another - as a breeder I hate to think of our beautiful Poms becoming a shaped outline such as the Poodle or Bizon.

I don't think Mr. Isidore Schoenberg would mind me quoting something he said to me a long time ago - for I've never forgotten it:

"A good Pom when viewed from the side should fit within a circle, when looked down upon he should be a short Pear."

If our Pom is put together correctly, he will do this - without being shaped!

Sincerely,
Beverly Griffiths
